VIA E-MAIL

Dear Mr. Thomas:

We received your request for Public Records on May 4, 2020 for:

“Any and all records of communications, including but not limited to emails, of each employee listed below referring or relating to the keywords “tuition reimbursement” and “tuition refund” in the months of February and March of 2020.

- a. Lisa A. Calise, Senior Vice President for Administration & Finance and Treasurer, Office of the President;*
- b. Robert R. Gamache, Interim Senior Vice President Academic Affairs, Student Affairs, and International Relations, Office of the President;*
- c. Marty Meehan, President, Office of the President;*
- d. Donald Kilburn, Chief Executive Officer of UMassOnline, The Office of the President”*

UITS Department has searched the requested email addresses for the terms provided. There are no documents responsive to your request.

Under Chapter 66 of the General Laws, we are required to inform you of the right to appeal our disposition to the Supervisor of Public Records, Office of the Secretary of State, pre@sec.state.ma.us, and the right to seek judicial review of an unfavorable decision by commencing a civil action in the superior court under subsection (c) of section 10A.

Sincerely,

Sean Regan
